

DESIRE INTERVENTION

CUBAN OFFICIALS ANXIOUS TO HAVE THE UNITED STATES ASSUME CONTROL.

PALMA INTENDS TO RESIGN

ALL THE MEMBERS OF HIS CABINET AND HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS HAVE QUIT.

Havana, Sept. 26.—It is declared on very high authority that American intervention in Cuba is certain. Furthermore it is expected that the proclamation of intervention will be issued from Oyster Bay.

Havana, Sept. 26.—All the members of the cabinet and the heads of departments have presented their resignations to President Palma. He has accepted them, but the officials will retain their positions until the resignation of the president has been presented to congress. Senor O'Farrell, secretary of state and justice, said there would probably be government by a commission appointed by the American government. He mentioned Senor Barreiro, chief justice of the supreme court, and General Mario Menocal as possible commissioners.

ON VERGE OF INTERVENTION.

Cuban Republic May Again Be Under American Control.

Havana, Sept. 26.—The Cuban republic stands on the verge of a second period of American intervention. The Moderate party, which six weeks ago was in absolute control of every office in the island, national, provincial and municipal, is determined to abdicate everything and compel the United States to intervene. In fact every government official from President Palma down is sincerely anxious to force such intervention rather than yield to any one of the terms offered by the Liberal party and those in arms against the government.

The Liberal leaders characterized the conduct of the government as reason to the republic, while Secretary of War Taft regards it as an unwarranted and dishonorable attempt to force the United States into intervention. This, it has been stated, is precisely what the Roosevelt administration has been most anxious to avoid. It is still just barely possible that President Roosevelt through Secretary Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon may yet arrange to establish the Liberals in control of the Cuban government, but this is regarded only as the remotest sort of possibility. With either party installed in power there would still remain a condition of deplorable dissatisfaction and unrest and there now appears nothing whatever to promise relief save full control by the United States.

Acting Secretary of the Interior Montalvo declared Tuesday evening that he never would turn the army over to the Liberals under any circumstances, but all government officials unite in saying that if the rebels in the field or any portion of them resist American control the Cuban army would co-operate with the United States in every way possible. The real feeling at the palace is one of relief in the prospect that the adversaries of the government will not win, even though the government loses, combined with the satisfaction that the United States will be obliged to take over Cuba indefinitely, and possibly forever.

Calls Special Session of Congress.

President Palma has called a special session of congress for Friday, when he will present the resignations of himself and Vice President Capote. The Moderates, however, will not attend that session of congress, for in their hurriedly called national Moderate assembly Tuesday afternoon they decided unanimously simply to quit forthwith. They will not even attend the approaching session or have anything more to do with the government of Cuba, alleging that they have been unjustly treated by President Roosevelt's commissioners.

This determination is taken by Messrs. Taft and Bacon, however, as another indication that the Moderate leaders, since they can no longer control the government themselves, are determined at whatever cost that the Liberals shall not now or hereafter obtain control.

At the conclusion of the Moderate assembly Tuesday afternoon Vice President Mendez Capote called on the American commissioners and declared that he had been instructed by the assembly to draft a reply to Secretary Taft's letter to President Palma in which peace terms were suggested.

After this interview Senor Mendez Capote said to the Associated Press: "I have resigned irrevocably my position as vice president of the republic. I resigned because the resignation of President Palma was forced upon him by causes detrimental to the dignity and decorum of the office of chief executive. The president will convene congress in extraordinary session on Friday to consider his resignation and my own."

Mendez Capote said further that the entire body of Moderates in both houses, as well as the entire Liberal National, or Nunez party, would refrain from attending the extraordinary session. As the Moderate and Nationalists comprise more than two-thirds of each house there will be no quorum. This will block action.

Mendez Capote emphatically condemned the alleged partiality of the American commissioners and said he expressed the opinion of many of the members of his party when he declared that Secretaries Taft and Bacon had placed themselves unreservedly on the side of the Liberals and against the existing recognized government. He said that even had they accepted the basis of peace first presented by the mediators, he did not think the island would have remained at peace for thirty days.

Mendez Capote has called another meeting of the Moderates for Thursday to determine the attitude of the party toward the approaching extraordinary session of congress.

While the developments recorded Tuesday are profoundly serious, the outward appearance of things was distinctly peaceful. Tuesday was the quietest day yet at the American legation, where the commissioners have been holding their hearings. There were comparatively few callers, but there was a constant interchange of cablegrams with Oyster Bay over a direct wire from the legation to the cable office.

Determined to Resign.

These communications were the result of a notification from President Palma that he and his associates had determined to resign rather than to submit to the terms suggested and the fact that they declined to offer any modifications to these terms.

The formal draft of the terms sent to the palace early Tuesday morning was rejected at noon. This action was not expected by Secretary Taft, notwithstanding the fact that it had been threatened by certain of the government officials and practically caused him to abandon his efforts toward a settlement that would continue the sovereignty of the republic.

Although intervention appears to be certain, both Secretaries Taft and Bacon assured the Associated Press Tuesday night that such a course would not be taken so long as a government remains with which they can treat, but in face of the personal communication from President Palma that he is about to throw over the whole matter, Secretary Taft has no great expectation that the present government will endure for long.

Secretary Taft feels that President Palma's course is uncalled for, as the latter setting forth the terms of peace invited the government to suggest changes for the terms unsatisfactory to them and in fact to name any other plan which they believe would be acceptable to all concerned. Secretary Taft feels keenly that President Palma has been insincere in the negotiations with the American commissioners in that he had entered upon the negotiations with the voluntary promise to abide by the decision of the commissioners and then rejected the very first suggestion made, and also refused to offer any counter plans. This convinced Secretary Taft that President Palma intended to accept only if the decision favored the existing government and when Palma sent word that he intended to resign, Mr. Taft was further convinced that the president of Cuba would wreck the government of the republic rather than make personal or party sacrifices.

TRANSFER OF TROOPS

PLANS COMPLETED FOR SENDING SOLDIERS TO CUBA IN CASE OF NECESSITY.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Sept. 26.—Plans for the transfer of troops from the United States to Cuba in the event of the failure of Secretary Taft's mission to bring about a peaceful solution of the trouble there have been completed.

The final step was taken Tuesday, according to announcement made here Tuesday night, when the transport Sumner, now lying at the New York navyyard, was put in commission. The Sumner is in readiness for the immediate embarkation of troops. Negotiations are already under way for the acquisition of merchant steamers to be used as transports.

That the events of Tuesday, as told in the press dispatches, have hastened plans which have been long in preparation seems apparent. Additional warships will reach Cuba within a few days and will be ready to land marines if necessary long before the regular troops now awaiting orders can be moved. Should armed intervention come these forces will undoubtedly form the vanguard of the invading army.

Funston Sails for Havana.

Tampa, Fla., Sept. 26.—The steamer Olivette with General Funston on board sailed for Havana at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, almost thirty-six hours after her scheduled time for sailing.

Cannons Opens Missouri Campaign.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 26.—Joseph G. Cannon, speaker of the national house of representatives, was the principal speaker at convention hall Tuesday night at a Republican meeting, which opened the congressional campaign in Western Missouri. Speaker Cannon devoted much of his speech to William J. Bryan.

HARMONIOUS CONVENTION.

Held by New York Republicans at Saratoga.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 26.—The first session of the Republican state convention lasted an hour and a half and was harmonious and comparatively uneventful. Two episodes, however, occasioned some comment and amusement. One was a brief passage between State Chairman Odell, presiding officer, and Representative Herbert Parsons, heading the New York county delegation, and the other was the interruption of temporary Chairman Driscoll's attack upon William R. Hearst by a young man standing before the front row of delegates who exclaimed that Mr. Hearst had "sacrificed all." This was hardly noticed but he repeated in a loud voice that Mr. Hearst had "sacrificed $15,000,000."

The delegates were indignant and the man was ejected.

Still another incident out of the ordinary was the adoption of a resolution deploring race-hatred and mob law, "at home or abroad." The resolution attracted the more attention because it was presented by a colored delegate, Charles W. Anderson, deputy collector of internal revenue at New York, an "additional member" of the state committee.

Mr. Anderson asked unanimous consent to the reception of the resolution. By this time the delegates had come to realize that the resolution applied not only to lynching and mob violence affecting the negro race represented by Mr. Anderson, but also to the anti-Jewish rioting in Russia, and there was a clamor for its reception.

Chairman Odell put the question and the resolution was carried amid cheers.

Neither of the two United States senators, Platt and Dewey, who have attended every Republican state convention for a generation, was present Tuesday.

HEARST FOR GOVERNOR.

Will Probably Be Nominated by New York Democrats.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 26.—The Democratic state convention will Wednesday nominate a candidate for governor and a full state ticket, action which may not go through with all the smoothness that characterized the first brief session Tuesday. Lewis Nixon of New York, the temporary chairman, made an appeal for harmony, which was applauded more than any other utterances. There is a tension among the delegates, however, and there may break a storm which might sweep away the structure which was built Tuesday after many hours of earnest effort on the part of the leaders, who are trying to find a common ground where, temporarily at least, the Democratic party of the state may pitch its tent.

According to the consensus of opinion, William R. Hearst of New York, who is already the nominee of the Independence league, will probably be nominated for governor on the first ballot.

The candidacy of District Attorney William T. Jerome was practically withdrawn Tuesday at an adjourned meeting of the Albany conference of anti-Hearst Democrats.

At a second session of this adjourned conference Tuesday night Mr. Jerome made an address which many believe means that he possibly may lead a fight against the nomination of Hearst on the convention floor. It is reported that he intends securing a proxy from one of the New York delegates for the purpose of stating his position to the convention.

Ambition.

"No, Tommy," said his mother; "you can't have any more cake. You've had enough."

"What a fine little fellow he is!" remarked the guest. "And when you're a man, Tommy, what are you going to do?"

"I'm goin' ter buy too much of everything I like to eat," replied Tommy sulkily.—Philadelphia Press.

BOUND FOR CHICAGO

TO PROTECT THE INNOCENT

EMBEZZLER SAYS HE ALSO IS ANXIOUS TO INCRIMINATE GUILTY PARTIES.

New York, Sept. 26.—Paul O. Stensland, self-confessed embezzler of funds from the Milwaukee Avenue State bank of Chicago, of which he was president, is now on his way to Chicago, a passenger on the Twentieth Century limited, ready and willing, he says, to admit his guilt, but at the same time determined to accuse others whom he claims were equally culpable for the wrecking of the institution and its attendant losses. The last hours of the indicted official in New York with their varied incidents were not unlike in that respect those which marked his flight from Illinois several months ago to Tangier where amid the picturesque settings of the roving tribes of Raisuli he was finally captured and held until his removal to New York on a steamer.

Monday night and early Tuesday morning he was a prisoner at police headquarters, but his prominence afforded him no privilege whatever. Following a sleepless night in a cheerless cell in which a pine board was the only resting place, he was lined up with a score of pickpockets and other petty criminals and forced to pass in review before the detective sergeants. There he was measured and photographed for the headquarters' gallery. After that conditions changed for Stensland. He was escorted without physical restraint to the district attorney's office and there turned over to the custody of Chicago detectives. Under these officers his freedom became more pronounced. After having waived his extradition rights, he was taken to a Broadway hotel for luncheon with his son, Theodore Stensland, and later for a walk down Broadway and Fifth avenue.

Obtained Half a Million Dollars.

It was stated early Tuesday that Assistant State's Attorney Olson of Chicago, who brought Stensland from Morocco, had arranged for the former president to make a final statement to the newspaper reporters before leaving New York, but this plan failed utterly. Stensland rushed into the Grand Central station only a few moments before train time and could say but a word before the limited pulled out at exactly 3:30 p. m. His condition, both mental and physical, seemed vastly improved over the morning, when he was in a state of partial collapse. He was pleased at the prospect of getting back to Chicago. To Police Inspector McLaughlin Stensland stated that all he got out of the wrecked bank was $500,000 and he did not know what the cashier received. He said he had always hoped to pay the money back.

With Stensland on the train are Assistant State's Attorney Olsen, Detective Sergeant Kinder, who is personally responsible for Stensland, and Theodore Stensland, the son. The final word of the returning official, as he left New York, was that he was glad to go back to help in closing the bank's affairs. He wanted to protect innocent people, he declared, to incriminate those who should be incriminated and to show the Chicago public that he was not the black sheep that he had been painted.

Only One King Buried in Iceland.

In Iceland it is the boast of the native that "only one king is buried here." That was King Roerek of Norway (vide Snorri Sturluson's Saga, "Helmskringla"), whom King Olaf the Holy "shipped," with the significant hint that he need not be in any hurry to return to his native land. Roerek, who was a shrewd, peaceably minded monarch, took the hint, went to Iceland and a thousand odd years ago settled down to farming "at a little stead height, Calfskin, where were but few serving folk, and there he dwelt and on the fourth winter got the illness which brought him to his bane. So, it is said, he is the only king that rests in Iceland."

BOYNTON AND THOMPSON FREE.

Did Not Intend to Make Venezuelan Money in America.

New York, Sept. 26.—Captain George F. Boynton of South America and Lewis M. Thompson, a lawyer of this city, Tuesday were discharged from custody by a United States commissioner, before whom they had been arraigned on a charge of having in their possession hubs and dies for the reproduction of the Bolivar silver dollar of Venezuela. Counsel for the defendants contended that the federal statutes made a distinction between the possession of dies to counterfeit United States coins and the money of another country, arguing that proof must be established that it was intended to engage in the counterfeiting within the jurisdiction of the United States. The commissioner upheld this contention and as the prisoners showed that they had planned to make their coins in the delta of the Orinoco in South America, the case was dismissed.

Good government in Cuba will not be possible until there is a change in the character of the population. This can only be brought about by permanent American sovereignty, which will cause the island to rapidly fill with Americans, drawn by the extraordinarily good opportunities for acquiring wealth, for Cuba is naturally one of the richest, most productive places in the world.

DEMOCRATIC papers prate long and loudly about Governor Johnson's record, but they all fail to particularize, or mention a single thing he has done that has been of great benefit to the people. On the other hand although he loudly proclaims our laws are amply "sufficient and efficient" to properly regulate the railroads, yet in the two years he has been governor, he has taken no step whatever to correct the rank discriminations that recent investigations have shown to exist. Hon. A. L. Cole will not only enforce the laws we now have, but insists on additional legislation that will make railroad extortion and discrimination impossible.

Land Crabs.

Crabs are generally supposed to live in the ocean, but there is one species that lives on the land. It is found on the island of Jamaica, in the West Indies. It burrows in the sand sometimes two or three miles from the sea. It has two long claws. In attacking an enemy it binds it with one claw, which is then thrown off, and then continues the fight with the free claw. The crabs stay in the ground during the day and hunt for their food at night. They visit the ocean once a year to lay their eggs. They travel by night, when they are caught in great numbers.

The results have naturally been an industrial and commercial forwardness that has made us sometimes the admiration and sometimes the envy of the English.—St. Louis Republic.

DEADLY MUSHROOMS.

THE BEAUTIFUL BUT VENOMOUS AMANITA FAMILY.

Beneath the Pleasing Exterior of This Brilliant Fungus Lurks a Vicious Poison That Is Fatal to the Lives of Men and Cattle.

In the dark shade of lofty pine trees and under spreading oaks in more open woods a mushroom is found so remarkable in color and graceful in form that its beauty has excited admiration for hundreds of years. The color of its bright orange cap and its chalk white stem and gills is heightened by the surrounding darkness of the woods and presents a contrast as singular as it is beautiful.

But beneath the pleasing exterior of this brilliant fungus a poison lurks so fatal to the lives of men and cattle that it is called the deadly amanita, and in different countries mothers caution their children to beware of its charms.

Amanita muscaria, the deadly, or fly, amanita, is completely incased in a fleece-like covering during the early stages of its growth, which makes it decidedly egg shaped in form. As the stem lengthens this covering either adheres in loose patches to the top of the cap or it slips away and forms a sheathing to the cup at the base of the stem.

Another inner covering breaks away in its turn from the cap as the mushroom expands and forms a conspicuous collar about the upper part of the stem. The bulbous base of the stem and these ruptured, fleecy coverings are pronounced characteristics which are most helpful in distinguishing this dangerous fungus from the other varieties of mushrooms.

It is strong, free from pests and grows to a height from four to sixteen inches. In color the cap is sometimes bright scarlet, again orange or yellow or reddish in the center and light yellow toward the edges, and it has noticeable wartlike patches spread over the top. On old plants the color fades out, and late in the season particularly forms of the deadly amanita are found which are almost white. The stem is easily separated from the cup at its base.

This mushroom is more generally known than any of the other poisonous species. It has long been used as a fly poison in Europe, and it takes its name, muscaria, from the Latin word for a fly. Its poisonous effect upon human beings begins a few hours after it has been eaten. The symptoms are nausea and faintness, with cold perspiration and stupor, followed in severe cases by death from a gradual weakening of the heart.

A strong emetic should be given at once, and in all cases a physician should be called. Sulphate of atropin is the only known chemical antidote for this poison, and to save the patient it must be promptly administered by hypodermic injections.

The poison may also be absorbed through the pores of the skin, and bad cases of poisoning have been produced by simply holding an amanita in the closed hand or breathing its exhalations in a warm room.

If poisonous mushrooms are packed in the same box with edible ones the virus from the poisonous fungi is absorbed by the harmless mushrooms, and they become as dangerous to eat as the original offenders.

In certain countries the deadly amanita seems to lose some of its virulence, and in the north of Russia and parts of northeastern Asia it is used in the same manner as wine for its intoxicating effects. The mushrooms are gathered in hot weather and are hung up in the air to dry or they are sometimes picked fresh and put into soup or sauces. A small amount swallowed whole is enough to produce a day's intoxication.

Another fatally dangerous member of the amanita family is the death cup (Amanita phalloides), a beautiful mushroom which also grows in the woods, especially in pine forests. It is not so highly colored as the deadly amanita, and, unlike that mushroom, it has a smooth, satiny cap. It is usually white or straw colored, but specimens are found which are light brown, green, yellow and spotted. The stem is white and nearly smooth, and the cup at the base of the stem is invariably present.

The death cup is even more poisonous than the deadly amanita and stands first among all noxious fungi for its poisonous qualities. It grows in the eastern and middle states and in particularly large quantities near the city of Washington.

Another amanita (Amanita vernus), found in the woods in spring, is also very poisonous and may be told by its color, which is a creamy white throughout.

Although it is said that the amanitas are the only mushrooms which have proved fatal to human life, there are other varieties which cause acute distress that it is well to guard against eating them.

The boleti, for instance, have several varieties which are nonedible, although many kinds, on the other hand, make delicious food. The boleti are distinguished by a sponge-like surface of pores instead of gills beneath the cap. The harmful varieties are bitter, as a rule, and change color to blue or red when cut or broken. The edible varieties remain white.—Annie Oakes Huntington in Youth's Companion.

The mind is found most acute and most uneasy in the morning. Uneasiness is, indeed, a species of sagacity—a passive sagacity. Fools are never uneasy.—Goethe.

Extraordinary Announcement.

The rapid rise in the cost of all materials used in making Shoes has made it necessary for the manufacturers to add from 5 to 25 per cent. to the cost of their productions in order to maintain the quality or make shoes at the old price and use inferior materials.

The retailer who pays the advance must necessarily raise his old prices to his customers or take a very small profit. This is why nearly every retailer is asking $4.00 for a large majority of the shoes he formerly sold for $3.50 a pair.

The point we wish to make is this: The Red School House famous Shoes for Men, Women and children and for which we are exclusive agents, have a strong hold upon the Men and Women of Brainerd, because they find that every pair has an inner sole and counter of solid leather. When we took the agency we established the following prices for ladies shoes: $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 a pair. These are very low prices for the greatest values in Brainerd today, for all styles and leathers. Now, although forced to pay a heavy increase in cost, we wish to announce that we will continue to sell these Celebrated Shoes at the old prices, making the Red School House Shoes for Men, Women and Children, the greatest value in Brainerd today at the above popular prices.

Our Grand Shoe Sale of the New Fall Styles will be held next Thursday and Friday, September 27 and 28.

This is certainly a great opportunity for the city people and for the farmers to buy their fall supply of good dependable Shoes for the winter.

Come and examine our shoes whether you buy or not.

AGAINST THE SUGAR TRUST.

Department of Justice May Institute Proceedings.

Philadelphia, Sept. 26.—President Roosevelt is in possession of evidence furnished by Receiver Earle of the wrecked Real Estate Trust company, which is expected to result in proceedings by the department of justice against the so-called sugar trust. One of the assets of the Real Estate Trust company is the sugar refinery in this city built by Adolph Segal, the promoter, whose borrowings from Frank K. Hipple, the suicide president of the bank, were responsible for the collapse of the institution. The American Sugar Refining company holds a controlling interest in this refinery, which has been operated and Receiver Earle hopes to show that it was tied up as a result of a conspiracy in which the sugar combine was involved.

Tuesday the receiver held a protracted conference with C. E. Hotchkiss of New York, a lawyer representing the American Sugar Refining company, and creditors of the Real Estate Trust company, and counsel for Mr. Segal. Mr. Earle said the question as to whether he should proceed against the company under the provisions of the Sherman act of the state law was discussed, but not settled. The receiver evaded a question as to whether criminal action would be instituted against the sugar combination.

SOLDIERS' PREFERENCE LAW.

City of Marshalltown Will Carry Case to Federal Supreme Court.

Marshalltown, Ia., Sept. 27.—This city has decided to carry to the United States supreme court the case of Shaw vs. the City of Marshalltown in order to test the new Iowa soldiers' preference law. Twice it has been held unconstitutional in the district court but the state supreme court has upheld the law.

Cole & McDonald Said to be Going to Change Headquarters From Deerwood

THREE DRILLS SHIPPED HERE

Were Sent out Southeast and East this Morning—More Said to be Coming

The center of attraction on the Cuyana range is said to be shifting from Deerwood to the vicinity of Brainerd. Three drills were shipped here from that point yesterday and it is reported that Mr. Cole will remove his family to this point in the near future.

The reason that is given for this change of base is that there is a large number of options in this vicinity which will expire this fall and early winter and that it is necessary to rush work on them to determine which are worth holding. It is further stated that it may be necessary to work the drills night and day in order to cover the work in the time at hand. That the pulling out from Deerwood does not necessarily mean any cessation of work there is shown by the fact that in practically every instance the casing has been left in the hole, which would not be done unless it was considered certain that work would be resumed in the holes soon.

To replace the Cole & McDonald drills Legge & Morrison, of Minneapolis, will put in drills on the Franklin Merritt options.

There are rumors of activity in the matter of putting down shafts, but nothing definite has been learned regarding their outcome.

WOULD CHANGE LAWS

O. C. Coffin, of Deerwood, Suggests Changes that would Relieve Towns Of Needless Expense

In speaking to a DISPATCH representative the other day O. C. Coffin, for several years town clerk of the town of Deerwood, made several suggestions regarding possible changes for the better in the laws of Minnesota regarding town matters. The subject came up through a discussion of the matter of paying road tax in cash, which Mr. Coffin favors. He then went on to speak of the unnecessary expense of the taxpayers of a separate town election each year, and advocated the election of town officials at the general elections. He held that it would save each town at least $25 a year, which could be added to the available highway funds without adding to the burden. Town officers are elected in Iowa at the general elections and have been for many years and the plan has always acted satisfactorily.

AMUSEMENTS

The Story of "The World."

Swain's melodramatic masterpiece, "The World" appears here for one night, Thursday Sept. 27th. This phenomenally successful production has won so much notoriety during its season in New York and on the road that the story of the play possesses an unusual interest for the theatre going public.

Digressing from the atmosphere in which most plays run their course, that of "The World" is distinctly nautical, pursuing the action of its plot on the Atlantic ocean. Breathing the of wild, salty flavor of the sea, with a host of typical characters drawn true to life, this play holds the auditor at once enthralled and refreshed. The action of the play opens on the ocean docks at Liverpool on the eve of departure of a trans-Atlantic greyhound. A young girl is being forced to leave England against her will by a human devil whom fate has made her guardian, and from whom her only brother has long since fled. To remove her, the only barrier to her father's estate, from his path, the wretch blows up the steamer in mid-ocean, and it is by the merest chance that she is saved from death by the intervention of the mate, who is subsequently discovered to be her brother. After painful vicissitudes they are at last rescued by the same hands that have already saved her inhuman guardian and his co-conspirator. Failing to poison her and her brother, the guardian finally succeeds in having the brother incarcerated in an insane asylum and kidnaps the unprotected sister. Retribution, however, follows close on his heels, and at the moment of his apparent triumph he is dumfounded by the inopportune appearance of brother and sister, the former having escaped from his keepers and rescued his sister in time to frustrate the consummation of the guardian's villainous schemes. Seats now on sale. Prices 75, 50 and 25.

ARE YOU WRETCHED IN BAD WEATHER?

Keeping the Kidneys Well Has Kept Many Brainerd People Well

Many Brainerd people find that bad weather brings on a dull pain in the back, or rheumatic aching, neuralgia, nervousness, irritability and weakness. If, when you get wet or take cold, it "settles on the kidneys," and there is a shivery, chilly sensation in the back, it shows kidney weakness, which is often the beginning of disease. Doan's Kidney Pills should be used persistently until the chilly feeling is gone, and the flow of urine is natural. Doan's Kidney Pills have saved Brainerd people much suffering.

Mrs. J. A. Johnson, living at 611 10th St. S., Brainerd, Minn., says: "My husband's work brings a constant severe strain on the muscles of the back and it recently caused an attack of kidney trouble that became worse whenever he took cold. He suffered from backache and was so lame and sore that it was hard to straighten up or even to move about. There was also an irregular action of the kidneys. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised he got a box at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store, and the treatment proved most beneficial, corrected the kidney trouble and removed the pain and lameness. I also used Doan's Kidney Pills myself, with the gratifying results. They certainly act quickly and surely."

WHY CYPRESS WOOD SINKS.

Washington Scientists Made a Most Singular Discovery.

Southern lumbermen take great delight in a story of certain scientific gentlemen who were sent by the government at Washington to study the growth and uses of the bald cypress at a time when cypress lumber was comparatively new to the market. They went direct to a large camp, presented credentials to the superintendent and watched with minute care the processes of cutting the timber and floating it down stream.

Cypress is a light, spongy wood that grows in swamps and absorbs water readily. The scientific gentlemen requested the superintendent to throw some logs into the river separate from the main rafts and followed their progress down stream in a boat. After floating south for some distance the logs with one accord sank. Much surprised, the scientific gentlemen returned and followed another consignment. The phenomenon was repeated; at a certain distance from the camp all the logs sank.

The gentlemen from Washington, being very scientific, did not think to question the unlettered superintendent about the power of cypress to become waterlogged, but after numerous observations and much comparing of notes reported to their department the startling discovery that cypress floated north of a certain parallel of latitude and south of it invariably sank. Of the cause they were not yet certain, but hazarded the suggestion that it might lie in the rotary motion of the earth, increasing in speed as the logs approached the equator until it was powerful enough to draw them under.—Philadelphia North American.

IN ATLANTA RACE WAR

ONE WHITE MAN AND AT LEAST EIGHTEEN COLORED MEN WERE KILLED.

CITY AND SUBURBS QUIET

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 26.—Atlanta shows little signs of the turbulent scenes of the past few days. Good citizenship and cooler heads have apparently obtained the mastery and prominent men, both white and colored, are bending every energy toward bringing the city back to its normal condition. The city and suburbs are quiet.

A law and order mass meeting was held late Tuesday afternoon attended by representative people of both races. A fund of $3,000 was raised for the benefit of the victims of mob violence and a committee of five was appointed to push the relief work to a generous completion. A committee on resolutions, of which Clark Howell, editor of the Constitution, was chairman, reported resolutions deploring the condition leading up to mob violence and sympathizing with the victims of the uprising. The crimes against women, for which the negroes were punished, were condemned.

Those killed in the riots here since last Saturday night number one white man and eighteen negroes. To this number might be added the name of Mrs. Robert P. Thompson, an estimable white woman, who dropped dead Monday evening after seeing two negroes shot and beaten in front of her own home. The list includes County Policeman James Heard, who was killed in South Atlanta Monday night.

Following the arrest of 257 negroes at Brownville and Clark university early Tuesday and the detention of about 100 of these in the county jail, the feeling prevails that at last peace had been restored by a strong show of authority. Almost simultaneously two negroes were killed in another part of the city by three policemen. The main event during the day was the ordering into the city of four companies of state militia from outside points.

WISCONSIN REPUBLICANS.

Convention at Madison Adopts a Platform.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 26.—The Republican platform convention at 1 o'clock Wednesday morning adopted a platform, which the committee on resolutions had been working upon for ten hours. The platform endorses President Roosevelt's administration. The tariff plank reads as follows:

"We adhere to the Republican doctrine of protection to American labor, but believe in the readjustment of tariff schedules in all cases where protection is employed for the benefit of capital to the injury of the consumer and the working man."

Reference to United States Senator La Follette is made in the following language:

"We endorse and approve the past administration of Governor Robert M. La Follette, as conspicuously progressive, honest and economic and point with pride to his advocacy of a faithful compliance with party promises made to the people of Wisconsin in the past."

Governor Davidson's administration is endorsed; regulation of rates of service of all public service corporations is promised; regulation of life insurance business is advocated, and also an amendment strengthening the primary election law.

William D. Connor was elected state chairman over W. H. Dick by a vote of 71 to 47.

UNDER NEW PRIMARY LAW.

Democratic Nominations of Wisconsin Hold Their First Convention.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 26.—Wisconsin's Democratic nominees in convention assembled for the first time under the provisions of the new primary election law Tuesday adopted the same platform that was constructed at their state convention in Milwaukee in June, re-elected H. H. Hanson of Wausau chairman of the state central committee, selected a new committee, made W. C. Brawley of Mauston secretary and after listening to campaign speeches by John A. Aylward of Madison, the nominee for governor, Martin L. Lueck of Juneau, nominee for attorney general, and Colonel George W. Bird of Madison, adjourned.

George W. Lewis of Madison attempted to secure the adoption of a resolution asking the state to make an effort to induce immigrants to locate in Wisconsin, but it was tabled after a long debate.

Democrats of Montana.

Butte, Mont., Sept. 26.—At the Democratic state convention here J. E. Walsh was nominated for congress and Judge F. G. McClearn for associate justice of the state supreme court. The platform demands that in the battle of 1908 W. J. Bryan be chosen as the party standard bearer.

MARINES ORDERED TO CUBA.

Fifteen Hundred More Men to Be Sent to the Island.

Washington, Sept. 26.—Fifteen hundred more American marines were ordered to Cuba Tuesday by the navy department. Five hundred marines from the Atlantic fleet sailed on Tuesday on the battleships Indiana and Kentucky from Provincetown, Mass., 800 or 900 marines will sail on Thursday from Boston, Norfolk and Philadelphia and the remainder will probably leave New Orleans for Havana on a Morton line steamer scheduled to leave there Saturday.

In addition to the marines there will be 2,000 more bluejackets sent to Cuba. As there are now 1,000 bluejackets, when the vessels sailing this week arrive in Havana, the United States will be ready to land a force of more than 7,000 on Cuban soil.

Although army officers seem to regard the intervention of the United States in Cuba as inevitable, it is not believed that the army will take any immediate part in bringing about peace. Bids were opened Tuesday at a number of Western points for several thousand horses and mules to be supplied to the army within fifteen days and the quartermaster's department is overlooking no details which would assist the troops in case they be called upon for service in Cuba. Unlimited supplies are available at a number of Eastern depots. At Philadelphia the army has sufficient uniforms to meet the demand of an expedition to Cuba and other supplies are stored at Eastern depots where they can be had with little delay.

It can be asserted on excellent authority that no orders looking to the mobilization of troops have been received at the war department. Every bureau of the department is humming with the work of preparation.

The bolt ignited her clothing and the house, which was burned to the ground, causing a loss of $3,500.

THE EARTH'S MOTION.

Easy to Demonstrate It by a Simple Experiment.

It is quite possible to prove that the earth revolves on its axis by a simple experiment and without having recourse to mathematics. Take a good sized bowl, fill it nearly full of water and place it upon the floor of a room which is not exposed to shaking or jarring from the street.

Sprinkle over the surface of the water a coating of lycopodium powder, a white substance which is sometimes used for the toilet and can be bought at almost any drug store. Then upon the surface of this coating of powder make with powdered charcoal a straight black line, say, an inch or two inches in length and lying north and south.

Having made this little black mark with the charcoal powder on the surface of the contents of the bowl, lay down upon the floor a stick or some other straight object, so that it shall be exactly parallel with the mark. If the line happens to be parallel with a crack in the floor or with any stationary object in the room this will serve as well.

Leave the bowl undisturbed for a few hours and then notice the position of the black mark with reference to the object that it was parallel with. It will be found to have shifted its direction and to have moved from east to west—that is to say, in a direction opposite to that of the movement of the earth on its axis.

The earth—in simply revolving has carried the water and everything else in the bowl around with it, but the powder on the surface has been left behind a little. The line will always be found to have moved from east to west, which is good proof that everything else has moved the other way.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surface of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address—F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Fruit Tree Wood.

Many farmers who occasionally order the destruction of fruit trees on account of advanced age or unfruitfulness are quite unaware of the value attached to much of the wood thus sacrificed. Cherry wood is largely used in furniture and when polished reveals a beautiful color and provides a passable imitation of mahogany. Apple tree wood is remarkably well adapted to turner's work and is in demand for making cogwheels on account of its great strength and durability. The cogs of wooden mill wheels are often made of apple wood. It is also extensively used for fruit presses, where it proves very durable. The value of walnut wood in fine cabinet work is well known, and good prices are obtained for this beautiful and popular wood.—London Times.
